

Army and Navy Academy Grading Period 3, 2025 Honor Roll and Dean's List Awards

A Message from Dr. Patrizia Zary, Dean of Academics

As we recognize the accomplishments today, we're celebrating more than just good grades. We're celebrating the joy of learning, the pursuit of knowledge, and the promising futures ahead for our award recipients. You've shown us all what's possible when talent meets hard work. Let this recognition motivate you to reach even greater heights. Cadets, you have proven you have the skills to excel, innovate, and lead. Keep this momentum going through the second semester of the school year. Use it to inspire yourself and others. Parents and guardians, this is your moment too. Your support, encouragement, and sacrifices have played a big part in the success we're celebrating today. Thank you for being the foundation that made these achievements possible.
